I mean, so what you really mad about, like for real?
Cause you say its something but you ain't saying nothing and you Saying stuf f
But you ain't saying nothing
Everybody grown 'til its time to have a conversation

Your volume kinda high
See you at a ten, need you at a five
I already know what you'd do if I came home same time as you at night
I ain't do shit, why you picking fights?
Won't you open up, boy, what's on your mind?
Trying to read your mind, it's a waste of time
Let go of your pride
Cause any other time, I would lose my patience, oh baby
Any other time, I would lose my interest, oh baby
Any other situation, I would just say fuck it, go and get a new bag, a new m an, a new issue, yeah

If we both shut up, we won't be so lost in translation
If we just light up, we won't be so low in translation
Translation
I don't want to give you up on nothing
I don't want to give you up on no one
All I want to do is just love you better, better Baby, love you better
You know I'm the one, why you fronting?
If you just listen when I talk
If you just be quiet when I tell you what I need from you
Then we'll do much better

I'll trade all my lovin'
Anything for your honesty, give everything for you to open up
Baby, we just goin' through a phase
And I'll be over like everyday
Crash into you without no breaks
You know I'm a different woman
Cause any other time, I would lose my patience, oh baby
Any other time, I would lose my interest, oh baby
Any other situation, I would just say fuck it and a get a different bag, a n ew situation, new issues

But if we both shut up, we won't be so lost in translation
If we just light up, we won't be so low in translation
