Sezairi

4 o'clock in the afternoon
Sent a text but was it too soon?
I have always been passive
Not aggressive
Midnight I can't wait too long
Check the number if I got it wrong
We have only just met
Will I regret this?

Feel it in my body
I just want somebody
To hold me like I'm lonely
So I can be your only, only one
Wanna be your only one

Just one touch now I'm addicted
I can't get enough
Now that you're here
Just like the signs predicted
Lost myself and fell right into you
Feeling something new

Logic versus intuition
I don't know enough
Now that you're here
Feels like the universe
Has paved a way to fall right into you
Feeling something new

Call me
Anytime you wanna call me
Don't wanna come across demanding
All of your time is yours and I'll be
Right here
I'll be waiting
I'll be patient

'Cause I feel it in my body
I just want somebody
To hold me like I'm lonely
So I can be your only, only one
Wanna be your only one

Just one touch now I'm addicted
I can't get enough
Now that you're here
Just like the signs predicted
Lost myself and fell right into you
Feeling something new

Logic versus intuition
I don't know enough
Now that you're here
Feeling something new, yeah
Feeling something new, yeah

I can't get enough
I can't get enough
I can't get enough
