

Somebody Like You

Sezairi

What kind of fool, do you take me for
The kind of fools, they'll love you more
The kind of fool, you've loved and left before
Of that and through, it has the sweetest taste
The darkest heart can hide behind an angel's face
Looking back, I should have stayed away
And now I should be saying goodbye

Why
Why
The less love you give me
The harder I try
Mama warned me about
Somebody like you
She said you got to get out
But what can I do
I can't live without
Somebody like you

You build me up, and knock me down again
But ain't nobody winning in this game
Why you wanna go and throw it all away
Deceiving me and telling me lies

Why
Why
The less love you give me
The harder I try
Mama warned me about
Somebody like you
She said you got to get out
But what can I do
I can't live without
Somebody like you

Why
Why
The less love you give me
The harder I try
Mama warned me about
Somebody like you
She said you got to get out
But what can I do
I can't live without
Somebody like you
