

Violets (Interlude)

Sezairi

I know what you really want from me
It's not love that's for sure
Turned me upside I'm left empty
If that's love I don't know

How I arrived at this conclusion is not necessary
For you to know, you to know, you to know
I won't survive these feelings are all unnecessary
I just need to go need to go need to go

I'm waiting till June
For violets to bloom
It's really hot in summer time
Not my favourite weather
I'm used to gloom

We all assume
But violets aren't blue
Don't wanna be the closest colour
So it'll be a little easier
For you
