Alright, you're different, different, yeah, let's go

If I follow my original method
I would get at least half right
But why can't I figure you out at all?
I just don't know the answer, nothing
Let me warm up a little
Let's go

How about wearing a button down shirt for our date?
I'll call you, be be oh baby
I prepared this for you, lady
I'll whisper sweet dreams to you every night, yeah

I don't mean to be typical
Our chemistry is like sse sse sse
I can use any kind of word for you but you're
Different, different, different, different

You're something different, different
From 1 to a 100
You're on a different level
I'll run to you till I reach the end of the earth

Never felt this way before
What's the use of saying this? You're a perfect 10
My love my love
I'll go get you, vroom vroom
I'll go to your place

I'll race to you, I'll shoot down whoever lusts for you
Get out of the way, if you like me, press on the heart
Why, why are you
Shaking up my heart
You're not a person of earth
I definitely saw you on the moon

Let me book your time in a suite
One day, two days no every day
Come here and come into my arms, fall into my charm
Shout out loud

I don't mean to be typical
Our chemistry is like sse sse sse
I can use any kind of word for you but you're
Different, different, different, different

You're something different, different
From 1 to a 100
You're on a different level
I'll run to you till I reach the end of the earth

Never felt this way before
What's the use of saying this? You're a perfect 10
My love my love
I'll go get you, vroom vroom
I'll go to your place

Nanana nananana na
Nanana nanana
Nanana nananana na
Nanana nanana

You take those old feelings and fix them
You act like you're not and I haven't even asked
But I know that you're different
The weather is nice these days
I'll lay everything down and go see you
You're so different, can't compare with anyone else
You're different, different

You're something different, different
From 1 to a 100
You're on a different level
I'll run to you till I reach the end of the earth

Never felt this way before
What's the use of saying this? You're a perfect 10
My love my love
I'll go get you, vroom vroom
I'll go to your place
