Enough

SF9

You don't need no makeup
No need to turn the lights on
Cause even shooting stars loose its sparkles
And all the glitters whenever you're around
Like ice in the water
If you're the sky I wanna be a flier, baby
Not another moment, I don't wanna be apart from you

(Yeah, that's right)
Perfume that never goes (yeah)
Faint I'm overdose (yeah)
Now everybody want it
Sucked in it like black hole (that's right)
They wanna steal my glow (what)
I gotta say no (wuh)
Cause it is built only for my world

Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
Making me so mad cause all eyes on you
Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
I'm feeling insecure cause your face put me on fire
You colonise my fantasies, my agonies, my mind
Breaking down my heart, watching all the guys chasing on up on you
Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
I get enough trouble because you're superior

I'm locking you like a chest of treasures (treasure)
A supernova coming down from heaven
Baby, that's you
Feel so unreal but you know that's true

I'm shouting out my prayers (prayers)
I fear for the failure (failure)
So desperately I'm wanting and wishing
That never see you the way that I do

Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
Making me so mad cause all eyes on you
Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
I'm feeling insecure cause your face put me on fire
You colonise my fantasies, my agonies, my mind
Breaking up my heart, watching all the guys chasing up on you
Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
I get enough trouble because you're superior

I'm wishing all the eyes of men go blind
So that only I can make you mine
The blazing hurricane is on my mind
Craving the thirst falling sleepless for you
Oh!

Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
Making me so mad cause all eyes on you
Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
I'm feeling insecure cause your face put me on fire
You colonise my fantasies, my agonies, my mind
Breaking down my heart, watching all the guys chasing up on you

Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
I get enough trouble because you're superior

Don't get more pretty, yeah yayayayaya
I get enough trouble because you're superior
