Oh baby 〇〇 〇〇〇
〇〇〇 〇〇 Sunday

You are like a dream I just wanna you
I wanna talk all night with you
I love you baby I'm waiting for you
Should we meet up? It's a heart-fluttering Sunday

I have something to say to you
Can you listen to me for a sec?
When I look at you my baby
I feel like I can't breathe

Smile, smile
I want to keep our love together
I hope it'll last forever, our photograph

Oh baby I see
It's you, you're the girl from my memories
I'm just a nomad
Chasing after your traces

You make each day of mine special
I like that part of you
I like how you take a day off to come see me sometimes
My eyes are too small to drink in all of you
Who is so special
This moment will pass so let's take a #photograph

Shinning forever
My mood is going up to the sky
You make me like freedom
You make me like freedom yeah

Only to you, I'll be forever
The more I see you, the more perfect you are, really you
I won't ever let go, never

Oh baby I see
It's you, you're the girl from my memories
I'm just an artist
Drawing you out

When we take pictures, you don't pull back
Whatever photo you take, you look like a goddess
Seeing you in person is like watching a movie
Every day, let's take the best photo
