

Easy Loving You

SG Lewis

I forgive, I forget
All the words I've never spoken
I've been lost, I've been hurt, I've been blamed
Sitting here on the floor
Feels like I've been high forever
Coming down, falling hard, all in vain

Flames and drama
Should've just made it harder
But it was so easy darling
It was so easy loving you
Heavy-hearted
Know that I've been so guarded
But it was so easy darling
It was so easy love
I'm pulled apart, yeah
You're broken too
But it was far from the start, our love
Now I guess it's over
Hurts that I still remember
But it was so easy darling
It was so easy loving you

'Cause there was oceans apart
We're so far, yeah
I open my heart, yeah
Thought I was the only one
But I knew from the start, yeah
We were falling apart, yeah
And I knew that we were done
We were done

Flames and drama
Should've just made it harder
But it was so easy darling
It was so easy loving you
Now I'm heavy-hearted
Who would've known
That it was so easy darling
It was so easy darling
I'm pulled apart, yeah
You're broken too
It was far from the start, our love
But I guess it's over
Hurts that I still remember
When it was so easy darling
It was so easy loving you

Throw my heart in
Threw it all afar
You gave all your love
She don't know me like you do
Like you say you do, ooh
I forgive, I forget
All those words were never spoken

Flames and drama
But it was so easy darling
It was so easy loving you
Heavy-hearted
Know that I've been so guarded
Who would've known
It was so easy darling
I'm pulled apart, yeah
You're broken too
Hurts that I still remember
When it was so easy darling
It was so easy loving you
