

Fallen Apart

SG Lewis

Feels like
It's never been enough for you, no
As we pass time
I feel like I was holding on to what was said

But since we got a little bit older
Maybe our time is up
Maybe now we're feeling sober
Waiting for a chance to part
Can't escape the feeling it's over
Tear another piece of my heart out
Ready for a love to start now, started, no

It's better that we're falling apart now, ah
It's better that we're falling apart now, ah
It's better that we're falling apart now, ah
It's better that we're falling apart now, ah

In the silence
The feelings come pouring through, oh
It was paradise
But we flew too close to the burning sun
And we set alight

But since we got a little bit older
Maybe our time is up
Maybe now we're feeling sober
Waiting for a chance to part
Can't escape the feeling it's over
Tear another piece of my heart out
Ready for a love to start now, started, no

It's better that we're falling apart now, ah
It's better that we're falling apart now, ah
It's better that we're falling apart now, ah
It's better that we're falling apart now, ah
