

Lifetime

SG Lewis

I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you
I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you now

Sunday night's been and gone
Like a cool breeze
Till Monday morning comes along

But the weight of the world can't hold me down
It's mind over matter, baby, you're the one I found
Playing on my mind, so I wanna take the time
To tell you how I feel for you, you know that

I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you
I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you now

Well maybe I've been a fool
I was afraid of what I'd lose

But the weight of the world can't hold me down
It's mind over matter, baby, you're the one I found
Playing on my mind, so I wanna take the time
To tell you how I feel for you, you know that

I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you
I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you now

I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you
I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you now

I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you
I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you now

I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you
I've waited for a lifetime
To tell you I love you now

I've waited for a lifetime
I've waited for a lifetime
