

Silence

SG Lewis

Limbs, hearts and mind
No longer entwined
Let's recoup the feeling
If love is blind
Take the stairs
To a heavenly place
The climb is too much
You'd rather fall from grace

Was it what you meant
Was it what you implied
Don't think we're seeing
Eye to eye
So cover up
With all the sheet that you find
Face deep in the pillow
Cause you can't beat your mind
Quiet as we rest
Divided at best

Searching, but you're right in front of me
Hurting, but the silence deafens me
Make your return
Taken temporarily
Ooh, you think you're

Way ahead, but you're trailing terribly
So we sleep in silence
Mmm, ohh, ohh
Silent, silence, silent, silence
Quiet as we rest
Divided at best

Searching, but you're right in front of me
Hurting, but the silence deafens me
Make your return
Taken temporarily
Ooh you think you're
Way ahead, but you're trailing terribly
So we sleep in silence
