

Enough Is Enough

Sha EK

Uh-huh

Why the fuck did y'all jacked it? I got it on lock
When y'all lil' niggas just started rappin'
I'm really known for pullin' up on blocks
All my opps can tell you that I'm active
He was only fourteen when he died, so why I be smokin' his ashes?
Bitch, it's up and it's stuck, if we see them, it's lit
Them niggas don't got no passes
Dumb nigga droppin' the O lookin' dumb, like
We really do this for fun
I got some bread and I brought me a gun
Like, I'm tryna dump on your son
She tryna tell me that she can take dick
But when we fuck, I be makin' her run
She tryna tell me that I beef with her brother
When that nigga died, he was up in my lungs

Them niggas broke, they do not have no funds
On a drill we gon' get this shit done
Dumb thing jumped and thought we had a drum
How much good is you hit, I had more than just one
We had them trippin' and fallin'
Bitch my hand too quick, when I'm drawin'
I put some points in the stats
I'm tryna make sure that they never come back
We was alone nigga, smoking on packs
They gon' not like how the way we react
Mdotty got killed, they left that nigga flat
Dummy got poked, Delilah got clapped
DD flocked, get good, DayRay is a rat
Free the real opps, shit getting wack
Rappers out here getting shot right now, so I'm forever movin' tact'

Why the fuck did y'all jacked it? I got it on lock
When y'all lil' niggas just started rappin'
I'm really known for pullin' up on blocks
