(Perry K, you did a [?])
Lately, I just been gettin' the chips
No-no-no-no-no
No-no, no-no, no-no

Lately, I just been gettin' the chips
I swear to God, they don't know how it feel
Them niggas broke, they not [?]
I can see they don't want me to shine
Two different watches on a different time
Watched niggas back, they wasn't watchin' mine
Niggas be fake, that's why I'm totin' Jackie
Bitch, I'm not tryna make nobody happy

A nigga signed, but I still feel I ain't signed yet
I know that it's my time, but I feel it's not my time yet
My niggas comin' home so I gotta do right
Some of them got bail, some of them got life
Bitch, It's fuck the system, told my brothers "We gon' fight"
'Cause I finally got what I was prayin' for before a nigga went to sleep at night
'Cause I finally got what I was prayin' for before a nigga went to sleep at night

Lately, I just been gettin' the chips
I swear to God, they don't know how it feel

Niggas be fake, that's why I'm totin' Jackie
Bitch, I'm not tryna make nobody happy

They said I changed on these niggas
I had to flame on these niggas
I had to go drop some pain for these niggas
Now my watch and my chain done got bigger
Mama love know I don't play with these niggas, so don't you try to play with me, nigga
Thirty-eight special, it stay with me, nigga
Money and violence just came with a nigga
If you askin' you don't need to know

Lately, I just been gettin' the chips
