

Iron Soul

Shaaman

Look around, do you see?
God had failed human elegy??
The many souls around that row Fallen angels moving on

There's more to get, more to fight Feelings
are of another kind
The choices are set, take yours too
Read the new of me and you now

Caught in a miracle
if a ever see you smiling Throw away your ilusions you don't keep trusting any other lies

Who's in command
Of the heart of your hope Best thoughts are
Cause they saw on your love

Yesterday, stand alive
You will find where angels try For someone else come alone
Left it up to right the wrong

And you will see but then you will rise
??Digger's??
dead come back to life
You touched the wounds never healed
Love is wrong its not for real Caught in a miracle if a ever see you smiling Throw away your ilusions you let me hold it for a while

Of the heart of your hope
Running out of control

There was a time when the fields were green
The world was one life was filled with something There was a blue sea on the horizon
There was a dream of everlasting fire

??We mount our mouths like we got so cruel??
Along the
Its that the cause that we will die for Its that the days where the spirit lays on

(Guitar solo)

Who's in command
Of your heart of your hope Best thoughts are faith

There's more to know
And there's much more beyond Thing that will last
You will find on your know

Guess much more So
much more
There's much far beyond

Guess
So much more Then you will find on your own
