

Anabelle

Shaboozey

I said, oh no, Anabelle
I won't let you run from this one
All the damage that you did
There's no way that I'll forgive ya

Wasn't ready for that final blow
You said you would never let me go
To fix this girl, it's gonna take a miracle
And we both know you don't believe in those
And girl, I'm getting dizzy from this merry-go
You break my heart instead, that's usually how the story goes
I'm tryna find the words to let you know
I hope you're happy with the one you chose

I said, oh no, Anabelle
I won't let you run from this one
All the damage that you did
There's no way that I'll forgive ya

Okay, I get ya, you wanted things to end
I gave you chances, you blew 'em
Don't cry to me again
Okay, I'm petty, I'm ruthless, I'm looking for revenge
I gave you all my love and you gave him yours instead
I run it off, my money long
Got more than enough to do what I want
Now that we speak less, you filled with regret
And you drink till I'm no longer stuck in your head

I said, oh no, Anabelle
I won't let you run from this one
All the damage that you did
There's no way that I'll forgive ya
I said, oh no, Anabelle
I won't let you run from this one
All the damage that you did
There's no way that I'll forgive ya

Okay, I get ya, you wanted things to end
I gave you chances, you blew 'em
Don't cry to me again
Okay, I'm petty, I'm ruthless, I'm looking for revenge
I gave you all my love and you gave him yours instead
