

The Plan

Shaboozey

Ay this must be my second life (uh)
Tried to kill me but I couldn't die (ay)
Said you're spending Christmas in Miami
And you ain't from the 305 (uh)
Can't give you another try (uh)
So many women on my line
And anyone of them would pull up like a slip 'n slide (uh)
And bust it open for me anytime
Still every night I'm all alone in this Cali crib (ay)
Can't be mad at me when you had your chance
I remember counting dollars now we counting bands
If you knew how that felt then you would understand

Fuck up the money
Was it the plan
If I ever run out while I'm running, I'm running again
[?] feet in the sand
If you don't know that feels, you won't understand
Fuck up the money
Was it the plan
If I ever run out while I'm running, I'm running again
[?] feet in the sand
If you don't know how that feels, you won't understand
Fuck up the money
Was it your plan
Got me a check
Was it your plan
This shit say M's
Was it your plan
I'm a success
Was it the plan

I ain't 26 [?]
Shawty shaped like a supermodel
Walking a Balenciaga and bought her, hop in a 'Rari, switched lanes like I'm Frogger
Right now I don't want to be bothered, she can't go to sleep when I don't call her
Got her singing like Demi Lovato ay she got cake Betty Crocker
Gucci on me man I used to wear Dockers
Mama I told you I got you, I promise
I'ma keep working stacking my guap 'til me and you sitting front row at the Oscars
Told me not to tell you lies (uh)
But you lie to me every time
When you say you're spending Christmas in Miami
And you ain't from the 305 (uh)
West coast time is 3:05
Why you blowing up my line
Is it to fuck up the money

Was it the plan
If I ever run out while I'm running, I'm running again
[?] feet in the sand
If you don't know that feels, you won't understand
Fuck up the money
Was it the plan

If I ever run out while I'm running, I'm running again
[?] feet in the sand
If you don't know that feels, you won't understand
Fuck up the money
Was it your plan
Got me a check
Was it your plan
This shit say M's
Was it your plan
I'm a success
Was it the plan
Yeah
