

Alpha and Omega

Shadow Project

Since you came in
I feel I am living a dream
One miracle after another
In this dream
I'm awake
It's so unreal
I'm new with you
And the poison that seeps from this world
And the poison that seeps from this world
They try to taint your love
They try to hate your love
To the unbeliever
Don't get me wrong
I cry too
I hurt too
I fall too
I crawl too
I die too
But unlike you
If I fall
And the world gets the best of me
I feel his tender hand
I walk away from death

All power, all strength
All glory, all things
He's the alpha and the omega
The living word
The living word
All power, all glory, all things
All glory to you
All thanks to you

I walk away from death
With sand in my eyes
I crawl away
For his way
Now I am the salt in life
Now I am the salt in life
I stand tall with you
I am the salt in life
I stand tall with you
I once lived a borrowed life
I once kissed on a borrowed kiss
I sing for you
I move for you
All this for you
With sand in my eyes
I crawled away
Now I am salt in life
I stand tall in his eyes

All power, all strength
All glory, all things
The alpha and the omega
The living word is you

All power, all glory
All thanks to you
The living word, he's the I am
He's the king of kings
