Hounds Upon the Hare

Shadow Project

Why did you go why did you turn from me?
When all the world it seemed to sing?
Why oh why did you have to go away from me?

Now come away into my waiting arms.
Into a dream that you bring magically to life.
Outside the circle of relentless cold dead eyes.
Rise above their world of lies.

And I hear whirl of wings about you,
while Lords in red float just above you.
Grasp the season of a million shining stars.
And recognize the gift that you are.

Don't let it all come crashing down
like hounds upon the hare.
Don't let it all come crashing down
like hounds upon the hare.

Now we can walk humbly along the outer edge.
Far from a prelude to fatigued.
Awake the child lost in his slumber.
Introduce love to another.

Now how can a heart that's filled with love begin to cry.
When all the world seemed so right.
How could we let our love die
like hounds upon the hare?

Don't let it all come crashing down
like hounds upon the hare.
Don't push me down, don't push me down
like hounds upon the hare.
Don't push me down, don't push me down
like hounds upon the hare.

Come away into my waiting arms,
like hounds upon the hare.
