Knight Stalker

Shadow Project

It ticks way deep below this urge
This feeling fascinates my soul
I've got this feeling way deep below
Breaking the limit, breaking the limit
The farther he goes
Breaking the limit the farther he goes

Richard, do you realize?
Richard, you've got me hypnotized
Richard, look into my eyes
Richard, see me on your side

He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker

He's a sleek black tom cat
Sneaking through your way
He won't say a word
Don't stand in his way
He don't need a weapon
He does it for a laugh
He won't say a word
His eyes will pierce your back

Richard, do you realize?
You've got the power with no compromise
Richard, time is ticking, ticking
Seven years, Satan's alibi

He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker

Some of them live to say
Some of them tell lies
Hey Richard how 'bout that one?
What was trapped behind Zazara's eyes?
Did you ever realize?

What a strange appetite stick that knife in
Then kiss them good night

Richard, do you realize?
I'm completely in the web you spin
Those piercing eyes
Richard, that cold, cold glass
I feel them staring at my back
Richard, you're so...

He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker

I want to speak to Mr. R.R.
Would he have spared me?
Would he have pulled his gun out

If I was on my knees?
He'll rip you up
He'll stick it in
Yeah, you've got the stuff Richard
"You're welcome, please come in"

Richard, have you ever cried?
Have you ever ever cried?
Go on, cry through my eyes
Richard, did you realize?
Richard, they want you crucified

He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker
He's the knight stalker

Who will play God this time
You think you'll destroy me
It's not so simple, no, no
For this flesh, I am deeper than Hell
It's only a body, I still have my soul, my will Do you?
