Another Hero Lost

Shadows Fall

I'll never leave you but Fate has come to silence me darkness is all that I see
I cannot reach you
And soon the earth will cover me its become so hard to breathe

Forever...is waiting
The bottles steps your taking
Will soon be buried in the sand

And all of the battles
They say we won
They leave another thousand lifes undone
Another thousand lifes

Forever...is waiting
The bottles steps your taking
Will soon be buried in the sand

Your caught but not forgot
Another Hero lost
The sorrow builds with every passing
All the lessons that you taught
When all would light you bright
It is all in the eyes of your son

(Solo)

Forever...is waiting
The bottles steps your taking
Will soon be buried in the sand

Your caught but not forgot
Another Hero lost
The sorrow builds with every passing
All the lessons that you taught
When all would light you bright
It is all in the eyes of your son
