

In The Grey

Shadows Fall

Impermanence breeds pain
All hope and light will drain
You think it's all on you
But they feel it too...

The pressure building
The bones will crack
Relentless waves in which you drown
The heart rings hollow
And thoughts collapse
Ruthless obsession there's no turning back

Impermanence breeds pain
All hope and light will drain
You think it's all on you
But they feel it too...

Fucking surrender
Just turn your back
No way to win when your own mind attacks
Search for the silence
Search for relief
Burn out my eyes for one second of peace

Hey! another day in the grey
This can't be the only way
The light seems so far away
Hey! another day in the grey
I'm not giving up today
The light seems so far away

Must be a better way to live
Unforgiven
When there is nothing left to give
A life worth living

Depression
Relentless
Taking hold
Depression
Relentless
Beyond control

Hey! another day in the grey
This can't be the only way
The light seems so far away
Hey! another day in the grey
I'm not giving up today
The light seems so far away

Take back your life!
