

King of Nothing

Shadows Fall

It was gone before you ever had a chance lost forever in your disapproving glance

I see your face
it's twisted with shock
falling from grace
you deserve what you got

The ice surrounds you now

You can't pretend
all that you want
I've seen the pain
and all the evil you brought

Quit your fucking crying and swallow all your pills your not the only one with the urge to kill grab the dusty bottle and let the liquor spill devoid of life
death is your final thrill

Bloodshot eyes
can see right through the selfish lies search forever for a fix that keeps you high

falling from grace
you deserve what you got

My hands around your throat

You can't pretend
all that you want
I've seen the pain

I am the king of nothing over emptiness I reign drown the sorrow
wash away the pain
