

Running Through The Fields

SHAED

I was running
Waiting for you
I was running
Waiting for you
I was running
Through the fields
I was running
Waiting for you

Waiting for the return of the king
Where have you gone to?
What have you seen?
Will you reappear with riches and stories, hey
Will you share your secrets with me
Trust me, hey

I was running, running, running through the fields
Now I'm waiting for you, waiting for you
I was running, running, running through the fields
Now I'm waiting for you, waiting for you

Singing in the hollow of the snow
You wrote it for me so long ago
Will you reappear with harsh demands?
Appear without a plan?

Woah

I was running, running, running through the fields
Now I'm waiting for you, waiting for you
I was running, running, running through the fields
Now I'm waiting for you, waiting for you

I was running
Through the fields
I was running
Waiting for you

Woah

I was running, running, running through the fields
