

I've been thinkin' about how shit is crazy
I've been thinkin' about my life in 95
And I wanna know why my vision's hazy
Why do I see much better when I'm high

I been thinkin' about my education
I been thinkin' about how much I really know
I know how to hold up conversation
I gotta Ph.D. in being poised

But it's gonna be
All right in 95
It's gonna be
All right in 95

Tell me what's goin' on my brother
Tell me what's goin' on inside your mind
Why do we fight and kill each other?
Why do we love to watch it on prime time?

Tired of seein' all these faces, yes
Keepin' it real 'til it ain't real no more
You know how small time money makers
Don't even know just who they slingin' for

But it's gonna be
All right in 95
It's gonna be
All right in 95

It's gonna be
All right in 95
It's gonna be
All right in 95

It's gonna be
It's gonna be
And it's gonna be
All right, all right
It's gonna be all right
