Shaka Ponk

Sundown's coming
It's always the same
I need love some miracle love
Bodies start sweating I'm right on the game
You're mak' mak' mak' mak'
You're making love to me baby
You're making love to me
I'm faking love to you baby
You'll make it up to me
All right!

Digging your fingers into my skin
You need love chemical love yeah
You talk talk like a stereo
I'm done talking on my own
You don't know
Let's fake love babe
Come on now
Put your monkey on a buffalo
Let's take a trip to Mexico
We don't know

You're making love making love making love
Making love to me baby

You'll make it up to me yeah

Knock knock it's time to go
You taste better when I'm on my own

Morning's coming, I'm out of the sun
You need love physical love
A dream mistaken for the voice of a gun
You're making making making making
You're making love to me baby
