

Changes

Shakatak

How do I sleep at night
Knowing you are coming to me?
You're in my heart and in my mind
Only you can do this to me

And even now I can't believe you're just a dream
Because you're feel so really makes me wanna drive
And a visions are not always what they seem
How do you creep into the corners of my mind?

Dream on this journey
Stuffing on the way
Can you predict the future
How many hearts will you break?

In my mind you are here
Holding me the way you should do
Only I hold the key
To let you in but I don't want you

And even now I can't believe you're just a dream
Because you're feel so really makes me wanna drive
And a visions are not always what they seem
How do you creep into the corners of my mind?

Dream on this journey
Stuffing on the way
Can you predict the future
How many hearts will you break?

Places, faces changes
Colors in black and a white
Pictures and confusion
Becomes to you out of the life

Fly away like angels
So many places to see
Be with a one you want to
You are the one in my dream
