

Fire Dance

Shakatak

In the cool night
When she goes out dancing
Starlight
When she flies
With the madness
Beyond all understanding
The fire dance in her eyes

After midnight
Starting without warning
The starlight
Slowly dies
Until daylight
Early in the morning
The fire dance comes alive

In the cool night
When she goes out dancing
Starlight
When she flies
With the madness
Beyond all understanding
The fire dance in her eyes

After midnight
Starting without warning
The starlight
Slowly dies
Until daylight
Early in the morning
The fire dance comes alive
