

Stop

Shakatak

Why are you the last to see
That you have this strange effect on me
Everybody seems to know
Go it must be clear
But although my secrets out
You don't hear
(You don't hear)

Stop what you're doin'
I can't take it anymore
Stop what you're doin'
I can't stand it anymore

Well, should I just admit defeat
Something happens
Everytime we meet
Don't you see it in my eyes
Can't you read my mind
You don't seem to understand
Are you blind?

Stop what you're doin'
I can't take it anymore
Stop what you're doin'
I can't stand it anymore
