

When You Grow Up

Shakka

Hey, little man, I hope you're proud of me
Tell your friends this ain't a stupid dream
Chicks will like you soon, it's no big ting
Friends will come beyond computer screens

And I've been working every day and night
Pain and fights
Tryna make your dream become your day job
We ain't spoke in days and nights
And I'm feeling like I don't know if it's me you wanna become

But I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's everything you dreamed of
I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's something you can show off
And I don't wanna miss anything
So tell me if I've got it wrong
I just wanna keep your hopes as high as what you're dreaming of
I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's something you can show off

Hey, little man, how's life at 17?
Bet you didn't think she'd be your wifey
Let 'em laugh when you choose your degree
They can't chat shit 'bout what they've never been

And I've been working every day and night
Pain and fights
Tryna make your dream become your day job
We ain't spoke in days and nights
And I'm feeling like I don't know if it's me you wanna become

But I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's everything you dreamed of
I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's something you can show off
And I don't wanna miss anything
So tell me if I've got it wrong
I just wanna keep your hopes as high as what you're dreaming of
I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's something you can show off

You can do anything in this world, I'll show you how
Tell me now, tell me now, are you proud?
Anything in this world, I'll show you how
Tell me now, tell me now, are you proud?
Watch you go
Watch you go
You can do anything in this world, I'll show you how
Tell me now, tell me now, are you proud?

But I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's everything you dreamed of
I hope you like it when you grow up
I hope it's something you can show off
I don't wanna miss anything
So tell me if I've got it wrong

I just wanna keep your hopes as high as what you're dreaming of
I hope you like it when you grow up
