

A Roll of the Dice

Shakra

Read my mind, it's open wide
I hold on tight just for my own petty pride
Don't you see you're loading on me
Obviously you're rubbing your hands with glee

For sure you will find any way and you'll shine at last

A roll of the dice will change all our lives
You bet with the devil and we'll pay the price
A roll of the dice that covers your lies
It makes us believe in your selfish advice
A roll of the dice

You spread fear in peaceful times
You pawn us to save your nickels and dimes
You won't stand trial for all your crimes
You do your thing and just ignore all the signs

For sure you will find any way and you'll shine at last

A roll of the dice will change all our lives
You bet with the devil and we'll pay the price
A roll of the dice that covers your lies
It makes us believe in your selfish advice
A roll of the dice will change all our lives
You bet with the devil and we'll pay the price
A roll of the dice that covers your lies
It makes us believe in your selfish advice
A roll of the dice
A roll of the dice
A roll of the dice
A roll of the dice

A roll of the dice will change all our lives
You bet with the devil and we'll pay the price
A roll of the dice that covers your lies
It makes us believe in your selfish advice
A roll of the dice will change all our lives
You bet with the devil and we'll pay the price
A roll of the dice that covers your lies
It makes us believe in your selfish advice
A roll of the dice
A roll of the dice
A roll of the dice
A roll of the dice
