Hopeless

Shakra

Don't cry my baby, no more It was such a good time The reason's forgotten There's no reason at all

Now it's here I stand, reach for your hand And I give in, in to the final sin Is all I get, just what I deserve? I'm feeling hopeless, in despair

Led to believe in those lies
How I miss those clear blue skies
And more than that my guardian Angel
But I know I won't make history

I know it's hard to lose control, I know it's hard to lose control

You really think you're all alone, believe it's true you're on your own

I've been a fool, a little tool
I tried it all and I replied each call
So this is all, all I deserve
I'm feeling hopeless, in despair
