

Rollin'

Shakra

You keep me rollin' from the dark night to dawn
You give me fever and I'm completely drown
You're blowing my mind, still I want you to stay
You squeeze it all out, an evil game you play

Don't you leave me now
I'll even take a bow

You keep me rollin'
The devil will pray
You keep me rollin'
That he will get you any day

You keep me rollin', I suffer in your heat
Still can't believe it, you are so bittersweet

Don't you leave me now
I'll even take a bow

You keep me rollin'
The devil will pray
You keep me rollin'
That he will get you any day

You keep me rollin'
You keep me rollin'
The devil will pray...
