

Older

Shallou

Well, I guess I'm at the end again
Back to breaking down on benches
Guess I've grown to feel nothing
And it seems nothing hurts the broken

Out of everyone I seem to be the one with doubt
Stopped waiting out for love, so shouldn't it be here by now?
Maybe one day when I am older, I might understand why
Love just doesn't happen to everyone who wants it

Want to feel it, it
Baby, want to feel it, it
(Want to feel it, it)
I'll keep waiting for my lover
Maybe when I am older

And I keep losing everyone again
Maybe 'cause I haven't found myself
Feels like I'm looking for nothing
And nothing hurts more than not knowing

Out of everyone I seem to be the one with doubt
Stopped waiting out for love, so shouldn't it be here by now? (by now
)
Maybe one day when I am older, I might understand why
Love just doesn't happen to everyone who wants it

Want to feel it, it
Baby, want to feel it, it
(Want to feel it, it)
I'll keep waiting for my lover
Maybe when I am older

Maybe one day when I am older I might understand why
Love just doesn't happen to everyone who wants it

Want to feel it, it
(Everyone who wants it
One who wants it)
Baby, want to feel it, it
(Everyone who wants it
Everyone who wants it)
One day I might have it
Around the corner
I'll keep waiting for my lover
Maybe when I'm older
