

Antilight

Shallow Side

Let's save us both some time
There's no space here left for change
But you're probably gonna
Run past that pretending
It's all a game

You're so fake
That you started falling apart
Can't wait, there's alarm bells going off

Done wrecking myself
You put me through hell
Now there's nothing left to talk about
And I don't wanna feel this

Pull me in and drag me down
Chew me up and spit me out
All this darkness you can't hide
You're the anti light

Go ahead and cross the line
I figured you out just in time
All the lies can't disguise
You're the anti light

I couldn't help myself
Thought that we were something else
Our story started out so well
Another fucking fairy-tale

You're so fake
And you're still falling apart
Too late
There's alarm bells going off

Done wrecking myself
You put me through hell
Now there's nothing left to talk about
I don't wanna feel this

Pull me in and drag me down
Chew me up and spit me out
All the darkness you can't hide
You're the anti light

Go ahead and cross the line
I figured you out just in time
All the lies can't disguise
You're the anti light

I try to breath but suffocate
When will I learn from my mistakes
Now everything we had it fades away
It's your gravity that's holding me in place and I can't escape

Pull me in and drag me down
Chew me up and spit me out

All the darkness you can't hide

Pull me in and drag me down
Chew me up and spit me out
All the darkness you can't hide
You're the anti light

Go ahead and cross the line
I figured you out just in time
All the lies can't disguise
You're the anti light
