

Crazy

Shallow Side

I'm miles away
And there are so many things that I forgot to say
You're running through my head like lights on a stage
Every night, again and again
It seems like I just stand here blind
Forgetting every rehearsed line
And all I need is time to say

I miss your touch, I miss your lips
Once again on my skin
I'm going crazy (I'm going crazy)
No more fights, lonely nights
I still need you by my side
I miss you baby, I'm going crazy

It's hard to sleep
I'm laying in this bed of empty sheets
Thinking one more day would fill the need
And for me again and again
One more day to say goodbye
One more kiss without good night
Knowing you're not here right by my side

I miss your touch, I miss your lips
Once again on my skin
I'm going crazy (I'm going crazy)
No more fights, lonely nights
I still need you by my side
I miss you baby, I'm going crazy

Oh, I'm here without you
I'm here without you

I miss your touch, I miss your lips
Once again on my skin
I'm going crazy (I'm going crazy)

I miss your touch, I miss your lips
Once again on my skin
I'm going crazy (I'm going crazy)
No more fights, lonely nights
I still need you by my side
I miss you baby, I'm going crazy

I'm going crazy
I'm going crazy
I'm going crazy

I'm miles away, still going crazy
