

Resurrection

Shallow Side

All my hope is wearing thin
On this coat of armor
Desperation sinking in
It makes me wonder

Is there hope for me
Or have I lost my way
As this storm keeps rollin'
On and on and on

Give me another light
I need to see a change
In me, and my reflection
A resurrection

All my faith gets washed away
Like a sun in a black sky
The whispering winds call my name
And I pray it ain't my time

Tell me it's not too late
To weather out this fate
And brave the storm that's rolling
On and on and on

Give me another light
I need to see a change
In me, and my reflection
A resurrection

Where do I go
Where do I go from here
I've found myself at the bottom
Where do I go
Where do I go from here
With no more time left to borrow

Give me another light
I need to see a change
In me, and my reflection
A resurrection
