

Stand Up

Shallow Side

Free for the handcuffs broke past the chains
The answer is always very clear when the guilty is to blame
I'm moving mountains look can't you see
I won't stop till you surrender I won't stop until I am free
The passage will find you and there you'll face a chance
Hunting and reminding but the truth remains

Watch it all fall down around you now
Was it ever really worth it
Having your kingdom crumble to the ground
Because you never had the courage
To stand up
Stand up
To stand up
Stand up
To stand up
Stand up
Stand up

I am the warrior
I am the change
I've been hiding in the shadows waiting for your judgement day
The rest to show you're to blame
You can't walk through a lake of fire
With out feeling the heat of the flame
With a picture with the perfect world full of masquerade disguising and hiding but the truth remains

Watch it all fall down around you now
Was it ever really worth it
Having your kingdom crumble to the ground
Because you never had the courage
To stand up
Stand up
To stand up
Stand up
To stand up
Stand up
Stand up

You've got a reason to follow my lead
So hold on to me and stand up
You've got a reason to follow my lead
So hold on to me and stand up
You've got a reason to follow my lead
So hold on to me and stand up
You've got a reason to follow my lead
So hold on to me and stand up

Watch it all fall down around you now
Was it ever really worth it
Having your kingdom crumble to the ground
Because you never had the courage
To stand up
Stand up
To stand up
Stand up
To stand up
Stand up
Stand up
