

The Worst Kind

Shallow Side

I can't forget you
Lord knows I've tried to
But without warning
I saw the other side
Thought I knew all of your dirty secrets
Till I found out that I'm not the deepest one

I'm tired
And wounded
It's over
I'll prove it

Now I can't forgive you for doing me like that
You've taken the one thing that I can't get back
I don't care if you're sorry, it's too late to take it back
It's not the first time
'Cause you're the worst kind

Showing your colors
Blowing your cover
The mask you're wearing
Can barely hide those fangs
Always giving me a thousand reasons
Read like warning signs and you can keep them

I'm tired
And wounded
It's over
You've ruined it

Now I can't forgive you for doing me like that
You've taken the one thing that I can't get back
I don't care if you're sorry, it's too late to take it back
It's not the first time
'Cause you're the worst kind

I know you're only holding on to bind me
Showing just enough love to blind me
Cause you're the worst kind
Yeah you're the worst kind
You're the worst kind

I'm tired
And wounded
It's over

Now I can't forgive you for doing me like that
You've taken the one thing that I can't get back
I don't care if you're sorry, it's too late to take it back
It's not the first time
'Cause you're the worst kind

Now I can't forgive you for doing me like that
You've taken the one thing that I can't get back
I don't care if you're sorry, it's too late to take it back
It's not the first time
'Cause you're the worst kind

(It's too late to take it back)

'Cause you're the worst kind
