

Tell me your dirty little secrets tell me what you wanna be
I'm a snake within your garden when you're my Lilith who needs Eve

She wants to believe she's drawn into the sound
Swayin' like a willow and don't come down
Ooh ooh ooh, ooh she don't come down
Don't come down

Tell me your dirty little secrets tell me what you wanna be
I'm a snake within your garden when you're my Lilith who needs Eve
There is power in your whisper when you toss it on the breeze
You don't care that I am broken, let me worship at your feet

She can wear your heart like it was etched upon her skin
Comin' in like thunder she don't give in Ooh ooh well, ooh she don't give in
She don't give in

Tell me all your little secrets tell me what you wanna be
I'm a snake within your garden when you're my Lilith who needs Eve
There is power in your whisper when you toss it on the breeze
You don't care that I am broken, let me worship at your feet

Oh fed to the dogs till they hollow your bones
Run till your heartbeat is out of control
In these oceans of broken things we all sink like a stone
But you'll never make Lilith your own

Tell me your dirty little secrets tell me what you wanna be
I'm a snake within your garden you're my Lilith who needs...

Tell me all your little secrets tell me what you wanna be
I'm a snake within your garden you're my Lilith who needs Eve
There is power in your whisper when you toss it on the breeze
You don't care that I am broken, let me worship at your feet

Tell me all your little secrets
You're my Lilith, you're my Lilith
Ooh
You're my Lilith

Tell me all of your secrets what you wanna be
I'm a snake in your garden
Who needs Eve
You're my Lilith
Who needs Eve
