

Rock n Roll Queen

Shaman's Harvest

Just one taste and it's over
I'll be the rattle and the hum and the shake in her teeth
Moving down her spine, making her sing
She don't care what is said, she can dance to the beat like

Whoa
I hear the rock 'n' roll call now
Until I'm pushing up daisies
She's the devil's own daughter
And she's driving me crazy
Get you down when you older
But she'll shake up your babies
She's a shiver in your backbone
She's a rock 'n' roll queen

Alright
Ain't no point in getting sober
She's got that rock 'n' roll itch from her head to her feet
Getting that fix in the front row screaming out
Every little word, jumping out of her seat, she's singing

Whoa
I hear the rock 'n' roll call now
Until I'm pushing up daisies
She's the devil's own daughter
And she's driving me crazy
Get you down when you older
But she'll shake up your babies
She's a shiver in your backbone
She's a rock 'n' roll queen
Oh, rock 'n' roll queen

I want you to reach down, turn the radio up
'Cause lately I been thinking I been so hungry
Mama feed my soul
Got to, got to, got to, got to, got to, gotta turn it up
Ooh, the rattle in my heart now
Got me shaking and a-moving now
Mama scratching my itch
Get my rock 'n' roll fix
Got me singing real loud
Uh, sing it right now

I hear the rock 'n' roll call now
Until I'm pushing up daisies
She's the devil's own daughter
And she's driving me crazy
Get you down when you older
But she'll shake up your babies
She's a shiver in your backbone
She's a rock 'n' roll queen
