

Brand New Me

Shaman

I was feeling the love
Rising from the dark
Getting ready to see more than meet the eyes
Feel the fire within your heart
But the light has a price
When you come to life
You are what you left behind
Not what you are inside

I am feeling the tears running down my face
Like a dream I once had
From another place

Sometimes the pain makes you whole time will heal you
No matter if your lies make
You go through the night

Feel the brand new me
Hear the brand new me
Nothing lasts forever
Not a tear or smile
A life without some living
Is like living a lie

Sometimes the pain makes you whole time will heal you
Sometimes the world makes you crawl just to bring back the pride
Show your colors
And die with your boots on
But don't live a lie

Feel the brand new me
Hear the brand new me
Nothing lasts forever
Not a tear or a smile
A life without some living oh no
