

The "I" Inside

Shaman

We all are bombs waiting to explode
Just to hurt the ones around
We've fell in love with what we sell to the world
To avoid what brings us down

We like to live though the lies
We cannot bare the truth
Living in our own private life
Hiding in shadows

Close your eyes and meet the I inside
Face every demon you hide, behold yourself

We only live just to feed the beast
That we know we have inside
We are just prisoners of ourselves
When we feat to free our minds

And we like to live through the lies
We cannot bare the truth
Living in our own private life
Hiding in shadows

Close your eyes and meet the I inside
Face every demon you hide, behold
Close your eyes and meet the I inside
Face every demon you hide, behold yourself

Take a look around the world and free your soul
Falling into tears sometimes realeves the pain
Run away from memories that cuts you like a knife
No one will ever be the same again
Reasons I'm still here
Never will be clear, I'm not afraid

And we like to live through the lies
We cannot bare the truth
Living in our own private life
Hiding in shadows

Close your eyes and meet the I inside
Face every demon you hide, behold yourself
