

The Fall Of Paul

Shame

All the kids and the rats
They seem to scurry and crawl
They're sliding through the cracks
They're bound to fall

All the fathers and the mothers
The sisters and the brothers
Getting lost in the woods
Getting lost in the woods

And you can't go down
And you can't go down
Nah, you won't go down
Anymore

24
24 times I said your name
I seem to look my best whenever I'm depressed

24
24 times I said your name
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know that it's all the fucking same

It's in the air
It's in the air
It's in the air
It's in the air

Man's laughter is a good way to go
But now I'm burning out before the end of the show
Because you can't get younger
You can get older
It's the fall of Paul
But he's not going under

And you can't go down
Nah, you can't go down
Nah, you won't go down
Anymore

24
24 times I said your name
I seem to look my best whenever I'm depressed

24
24 times I said your name
I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I know that it's all the fucking same
