

Blooming

Shamir

I left my baby, I
Don't know what made me go crazy
Now, it's gotta go because

I don't have time to please you
In my life
'Cause I'm too strong to just lay down
And die

You know I'm different, I can be the same but I feel we missed it and
Spring finally came and I don't want the pollen
And the hayfever again
I just wanna smell the roses blooming
Blooming

They say that lovers always survive
So now I know I gotta keep a leash on my mind
Now it's got a protection and close friends with Rejection but I'm not ready to step down

I left my baby, I
Don't know what made me go crazy
Now, it's time go because
I don't have time to please you
In my life
'Cause I'm too strong to just lay down
And die
I won't die
I won't die
I can't die
