Shamir

I sold my soul so long ago
So now my veins grown hard and cold
It's hard to think that you want me
You're somehow blind to faults I see

Cause I don't wanna be in like with you
Because it turns to love
And all lovers do is fall out of love
Cause everything end and
You're stuck having to begin again

I call my home the open road
My restless heart beats black and gold
Someone like you can tame my wild
Forever mine just for a while

Cause I don't wanna be in like with you
Because it turns to love
And all lovers do is fall out of love
Cause everything end and
You're stuck having to begin again
