

They said you'd only want this
I said it's just no fun
They say you gotta own it
But all the money's gone
I think it's gone away
The screaming girls have gone astray

But you, just see the green
And you, understand when I mean
I think you're totally mean to the core

But I don't blame you
And I won't shame you
But I can't continue to play this game

They said I'll just avoid you
I said that's just fine
The choice is all up to you
But you won't make a dime
The screaming gays will go away
Make up the difference when I play

But you, just see the green
And you, understand when I mean
I think you're totally mean to the core

But I don't blame you
And I won't shame you
But I can't continue to play this game

I don't have much to offer you
I don't have much to offer you
I don't have much to offer you
But my soul, my heart
And everything I've been through

But you, just see the green
And you, understand when I mean
That you're just totally mean to the core

But I don't blame you
And I won't shame you
But I can't continue to play this game

I don't blame
And I won't shame you
But I can't continue to play this game
