

Her Story

Shamir

Come and sit here with me it could be quite a while
I'd never trust history 'cause that story was wild

When time isn't on your side
And you're not ready for the ride
When time isn't on your side
It isn't on your side, on your side

Come and eat here with me, I'll make your favorite dish
For you to dine with me, it's my only wish
That feel you have to choose
Between what's right and scaring you
Or when you have to choose and have to choose
To choose, to choose, to choose
And finally when you have to choose
Between what's right and scaring you
When you have to choose, when you have to choose

Don't wanna tell you what to do
But you know I'm right
It's not as fine, as you think
It's just been a long night

When time isn't on your side
And you're not ready for the ride
When time isn't on your side
It isn't on your side, on your side
