Will you wait till it's over?
Will you pack yourself up?
You say the night is over
But you just really wanna go home

I know that you that you love him
And that you're happy now

Oh shit, did I fuck it up again?
I say so many words
That don't mean much
Where were you when the sun exploded?
I bet you'd still call me back

I won't always be around
But I won't let you down
