

Room

Shamir

Tell me where to go now
Tell me where to end
Tell me how to explode without shattering
Gotta stay in one piece
In between this release

But I see the open door
And I'm in awe by its allure
Now all I have to do
Is to walk on through
Or stay trapped in this room

Tell me how to stand up
Tell me how to stand
My lack of spine is how this all began
Hard to admit to myself
Wanting to blame someone else

But I see the open door
And I'm in awe by its allure
Now all I have to do
Is to walk on through
Or stay trapped in this room

Tell me where to go now (tell me where to go now)

But I see the open door
And I'm in awe by its allure
Now all I have to do
Is to walk on through
Or stay trapped in this room
