

Sanity

Shamir

All I had going for me
Is my sanity, my sanity
But in an instant
It was taken from me, taken from me

With the loss of all I loved
And the life I was so proud of
Now I'm rebuilding from the ground up

My only company
Was my doggy, my doggy
But then my nightmare turned out to be
Reality, reality

So I decided who did thos to me
Has to clean up the mess it leaves
And I decided what's best for me
Was to leave my shell mentally

And all my friends just could'ntbelieve
And my mom was so worried for me
And I wonder what's left for me
Now that I lost my sanity
